Me On The Map

Due: November 21st, 2016

Purpose: This project aligns to our Social Studies unit we are currently working on which is map skills.

Goal: Students will create a flipbook of ‘them’ on the map.

Instructions:

1. Illustrate and write to complete each page.
2. Draw a self-portrait of your full body with the hands above the head.
3. Color and draw a portion of the earth.
4. Attach both to blue construction paper and mount the completed Me on the Map Step Book in the hands.

Extra Credit (15 points):
Students can create a book to go into more explanation of them on the map. They can research each category and write paragraphs to support. Adding personal pictures, magazine clippings, or anything else is welcomed. Be Creative!

If you would like to see an example of this it is located in the classroom, so please just ask!
Directions: Cut out each box and staple or glue together starting with the smallest on the top, finishing with the biggest on the bottom.
