Students and teachers follow their normal schedules: All will log into a virtual teaching space synchronously so that live instruction occurs throughout the lesson.

During lunch periods students take a break.

1:40-3:30: Teachers check in with students and families via email, virtual calls, etc.

Virtual morning clubs and other extracurricular activities will take place at the usual times outside of school hours.